1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

1. In losing a believer who you know to death do you think of them as having fallen asleep? What difference would it make in thinking like this?
2. God has victory over death because he raises the dead to new life. How does this make you feel about your own death? And Why?
3. How would you encourage someone by using 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18? See verse 18.
